

SUN SAFETY
It's important to find a sunscreen that will offer maximum benefits, like Clarins' Sun Wrinkle Control Cream for Face. You'll get SPF 50+ and protection against the appearance of wrinkles and sun-induced age spots. $30, Nordstrom.

PUCKER UP
Dior Addict Lip Glow is an SPF 10 lip balm that uses color chemistry to create a unique shade that enhances your natural lip color. The end result: beautifully stained lips. $29, Sephora.

SUMMER NIGHTS
After a long day of being out in the sun, finish your night off with a luxurious serum that will soothe and renew your skin. Chock full of vitamins C and E to moisturize and fight free radicals, Peter Thomas Roth's Retinol Fusion PM promises to give you a bright and healthy complexion while also reducing fine lines and wrinkles. $65, Ulta.

PREP AND PRIME
Heat and humidity can do quite the number on your makeup. But with a great base like J. McKay Cosmetics Ageless Primer, you won't have to worry about your makeup melting. It also has an SPF of 20 to help you fend off the sun's damaging rays. $32, Nezhoni.

Beauty and the Beach

BY COURTNEY ORTEGA

With summer fun comes the summer sun, and no matter where you go you want to make sure you're looking your best while still beating the heat. Whether it's the right cosmetics to complement your new tan or a sunscreen that keeps sun damage at bay, these products will help you look your best all season long.

GODDESS OF SUN
Whether you're hoping to complement your already sun-kissed complexion or just want to create a great summer look, Estée Lauder's Bronze Goddess Soleil summer collection offers a variety of products in beautiful shades of shimmer and bronze. Sea Star Bronzing Blush, $34; Shadowstick Duo, $20; Island Oasis Eye Shadow Palette, $42; all at Macy's.

SHEER PERFECTION
SkinCeuticals Sheer Physical UV Defense has an SPF of 50, but its ultra-sheer texture makes it great for nonpool days when you want lots of sun protection without a heavy sunscreen feel. $30, Shelton's Salon & Day Spa.

RINSE AND REPEAT
While a day at the pool or the beach might seem ideal, the combination of sun and saltwater or chlorine can leave your hair feeling not so perfect. To keep your hair nourished and silky smooth, incorporate a weekly repair session with MoroccanOil's Oil Treatment. $16-$41, Bella Retreat Spa & Salon.
