ALL DECO'D OUT
Don't let the simplistic front of Elizabeth Fillmore's "Deco" gown fool you. This satin-crepe creation features a show-stopping sheer, beaded back panel that brings the right kind of high drama to your wedding day. $3,960, Warren Barrón.

THE PRINCESS BRIDE
Less is truly more when it comes to the backside of Justin Alexander's princess-style "#8637" bridal gown. Thanks to a deep-V cut and crystal embellished racer back, it's the perfect opportunity for a bride to show off those toned, sculpted shoulders she has been working so hard to get. $1,500, Bliss Bridal Salon.

LOVELY IN LACE
Like a beautiful confection spun from Chantilly lace, this Bliss by Monique Lhuillier "BL1330" bridal gown combines classic and modern details for an overall gorgeous design. It features an elegant sheath silhouette and above-the-knee slit, but it's the jaw dropping cut-out back that promises to steal the show. $2,860, The Bride's Room.

NEW YORK STATE OF MIND
Named after Manhattan's East Village park, the "Tompkins Square Park" bridal gown from Lela Rose is a breathtaking piece of art. Designed with a crystal embroidered filigree pattern that spans from shoulder to shoulder, the gown's open tulle back is sure to stun with every turn that the bride takes. $4,995, Warren Barrón.

Taken Aback

BY COURTNEY ORTEGA

THESE HEAD-TURNING GOWNS FEATURE STUNNING OPEN, CUT-OUT AND EMBELLISHED REAR VIEWS.

Business in the front, party in the back. That's the best way to describe these gorgeous bridal gowns and their exquisitely dramatic backs, one of the hottest trends of the year. Featuring intricate beading and jaw-dropping cut-outs, these eye-catching dresses will make for a grand entrance down the aisle.

SAY YES TO THE DRESS
With so many stunning details to take in at once, it's hard at first glance to pick just one favorite part of the "D1461" gown by Essence of Australia. However, one twirl around and it's soon clear: The highlight is the beautifully embellished keyhole back. $1,799, De Ma Fille.

BUTTON UP
Taking a page out of Pip-pa Middleton's wedding-day handbook, the "Berkleigh" bridal gown by Maggie Sottero proves yet again that buttons are a great way to accent the backside. Spanning the back of the neck to mid-hip level, the Berkleigh's stream of fabric-covered buttons is a subtle way to catch attention without going over the top. $1,400, Ocone's.

BRING ON THE BLING
A dazzling dress from all angles, Jenny Packham's "Muscarì" is the perfect way to make a sophisticated and bold statement on that special day. Adorned with numerous jewel clusters, the Grecian-style gown ups its "wow" factor thanks to a pair of gorgeous crystals that dangle beautifully down the middle of the open back. $5,340, Stanley Korshak.
